Books@OVID

Books@Ovid combines classic and groundbreaking titles in a wide range of subject areas—including the world's largest online collection of core clinical texts.

All titles are available through our Library Catalogue.

Off campus access is via Student/Staff ID and Library PIN.

- To search for all Books@OVID, simply do an AUTHOR search our Library Catalogue for Ovid Technologies and LIMIT to: Book

A list of Search Results on Books@OVID will be retrieved.

- Click on a Title to display more information.
- From within the Title record, click on the Full-text via Books@Ovid link to access the E-book. (See below)

The E-book will open up in an in the first listing in the Front of Book view:

The chapter listing is available in the left sidebar.

- To read the chapter, click on the title link in the left sidebar.
To Print:

- Click on the Print Preview link at the top left part of the page.
- A Print Preview Options screen will then open.
- From the drop-down box, select your size you would like your images to print at - and click the Continue button.

Print Preview Options

- The Print Preview screen will then appear.
- The Print options popup will then appear.
- Click on the Print button.

To Email:

- Click on the Email link at the top left part of the page.
- The Email Book Content screen should then appear.
- Fill in the To: with your email address box and click on the Send Email button to send.